

50
MILLION PEOPLE living in modern slavery worldwide

What can the faith community do to help?

- 1 Talk and pray about modern slavery in your place of worship
- 2 Add this topic to your youth group and small faith-based group studies
- 3 Ask a guest speaker to talk about modern slavery at your place of worship
- 4 Create a safe space where concerned people and potential victims feel comfortable reaching out to discuss this issue
- 5 Read stories of those who have survived modern slavery
- 6 Look up your country's risk of modern slavery in the Global Slavery Index
- 7 Learn the indicators of modern slavery, and who to report suspected cases to, in your country
- 8 Find out what your local or national government is doing about modern slavery
- 9 Ask your place of worship to check if there is modern slavery in their supply chains
- 10 Download the Faith For Freedom app to learn more about modern slavery, how to respond to victims and the important role of faith in addressing the issue

Faith For Freedom

Scan the QR code to download the Faith For Freedom app >

Global Slavery Index

To look up your country's risk of modern slavery or learn more about the Global Slavery Index, scan the QR code >

Photo credit: SOPA Images via Getty Images.

Global Freedom Network is the faith-based arm of Walk Free, an international human rights group working to eradicate modern slavery in all its forms.